CONCORDIA
COLLEGE  NEW YORK

DEAR SPRING 2020 GRADUATES,

This college graduation does not look like the one you, your family, or any of us imagined.

We rightly cherish the ceremonies, rituals and traditions that mark special achievements, and college commencements are especially joyous and meaningful. Commencement is the highlight of my year, and my heart breaks for the disappointment I know you feel.

But for a moment, I'd like you to consider that even if we had been able to celebrate together, the day would have been just the coda to your educational journey. For the day does not define the journey. The journey and all its benefits are defined by YOU.

YOU are a college graduate, and your achievement stands on its own. YOU are a source of pride to your parents, your loved ones, and everyone here at Concordia College. YOU are a role model for your siblings, your children, and your friends. YOU now walk through this world with the insight and understanding only education can bring.

Moreover, YOU are a graduate of Concordia College, your education informed by our Christian tradition. Build a life around your passion. Define yourself through your purpose. Soften the rough edges of our world with your service.

Our world needs you now more than ever, and I can't wait to see all the accomplishments ahead of you.

God bless you,

Rev. John A. Nunes, Ph.D.
President

The listing of undergraduate and graduate degree candidates in this program is preliminary in some cases and subject to final graduation certification. The posting of earned degrees on the academic transcript in the Office of the Registrar is the official testimony of possession of a Concordia College degree.

CONCORDIA COLLEGE NEW YORK

Founded in 1881, Concordia is a college Where Worlds Meet. On its historic Bronxville campus and at off-site instructional locations, Concordia College celebrates diversity: of background, interests and life paths. At Concordia, students from all over the world and across the rich map of human experience engage with an ethics-infused, career-focused curriculum on their way to impacting the future through lives of passion, purpose and service. Concordia offers a variety of undergraduate, graduate, accelerated and pathway programs, including the innovative two-year Impact U program for students with intellectual disabilities. Concordia's nursing program is among the top five in New York State for first-time NCLEX pass rates. With selective honors admission, Concordia's Fellows have opportunities for deeper study and expression, and scholarships up to full tuition.
